

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. What is the foremost reason for wearing the hijab in the present day?
 - (a) Islamic identity
 - (b) Islamic modesty
 - (c) Islamic obedience
 - (d) Islamic seclusion
2. Which Roman statesman encouraged civic religion in his work The Laws?
 - (a) Varro
 - (b) Plato
 - (c) Cicero
 - (d) Augustus
3. How many female renouncers were under the tutelage of Chandanbala?
 - (a) 36,000
 - (b) 12,000
 - (c) 24,000
 - (d) 7,000
4. According to Jaina traditions, who were the caityavasis?
 - (a) Householders who supported renouncers
 - (b) Orthodox interpreters of the scriptures
 - (c) Women ascetics who lived in communities
 - (d) Temple-dwelling renouncers
5. What is bhakti often translated as?
 - (a) Gods
 - (b) Yoga
 - (c) Devotion
 - (d) Religion

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Guru Nanak was responsible for the construction of the Darbar Sahib, also known as the Divine Court.
7. True or False: Akhenaten sought to eliminate the worship of the gods Amun and Mut during his reign in ancient Egypt.
8. True or False: The central prayer in Jainism is referred to as the Liberation Mantra.
9. True or False: Anthony is recognized as the first significant anchorite hermit in Christian history.
10. True or False: In Buddhism, ordained women are referred to as Bhikshunis.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the concept of ziran as described by Zhuangzi, analyzing its significance in understanding spontaneity in life and its implications for personal and spiritual growth.
12. Discuss the contributions of female poets such as Ghosa, Apala, and Lopamurda in the early Vedas and analyze their significance in the context of ancient religious literature.

End of Paper