

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. What are the three interpersonal roles of managers?
 - (a) Figurehead, leader and liaison
 - (b) Spokesperson, leader, coordinator
 - (c) Director, coordinator, disseminator
 - (d) Communicator, organiser, spokesperson
2. What, according to Schnackenberg and Tomlinson (2014), are the three criteria which can be used to assess the quality of corporate transparency?
 - (a) Breadth, Clarity, Accuracy
 - (b) Disclosure, Detail, Accuracy
 - (c) Disclosure, Clarity, Accuracy
 - (d) Disclosure, Clarity, Efficiency
3. Firms that view themselves as market leaders in product quality frequently adopt a
 - (a) market share strategy
 - (b) penetration pricing strategy
 - (c) strategy that focuses on non-price benefits
 - (d) strategy to expand the overall market
4. _____ advertising campaigns are focused on gathering support for a particular message or cause.
 - (a) Product-oriented
 - (b) Person-oriented
 - (c) Idea-oriented
 - (d) Message-oriented
5. Which fashion house sued for damages to its reputation after being accused of stealing a design?
 - (a) Dior
 - (b) Givenchy
 - (c) Chanel
 - (d) Lacroix

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Consumer vulnerability refers to the inability to make informed, reasoned decisions about product purchases.
7. True or False: A work group with clearly defined roles and remote supervisors is typically considered interdependent.
8. True or False: The American flag serves as a symbol representing national identity and values in the United States.
9. True or False: A quality circle is designed to bring together managers and workers to identify and implement improvements in processes.
10. True or False: An organisational structure is designed to enhance workers' rights and empower employees in their roles.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the role of the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals in shaping the global sustainability agenda and analyze their impact on business practices and strategies.
12. Discuss the typical order of managerial functions and analyze how each function-planning, organizing, leading, and controlling-contributes to effective management.

End of Paper