

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Why does Parfit oppose equality?
 - (a) He argues that an unequal society is inevitable.
 - (b) He claims that by giving priority to the needs of the poor, we can increase equality.
 - (c) He asserts that we are each responsible for our poverty.
 - (d) He rejects the idea of equality altogether.
2. What is an act jure imperii?
 - (a) An act is jure imperii when undertaken by an international organisation
 - (b) An act is jure imperii when undertaken in an official State capacity
 - (c) All acts undertaken by State officials are acts jure imperii
 - (d) An act is jure imperii when undertaken by a State corporation
3. Dworkin argues that it is only a conception of equality of resources that can secure the ideal of equality of welfare. How does he suggest this aspect of equality to be measured?
 - (a) When no-one would prefer another's bundle of resources to his or her own.
 - (b) By reference to the ownership of private property.
 - (c) By the amount of income tax paid by individuals.
 - (d) When the community determines that equality has been achieved.
4. What is the purpose of politics, according to Aristotle?
 - (a) To advance the interests of politicians.
 - (b) To produce virtuous citizens and encourage righteousness in individuals.
 - (c) To obtain power.
 - (d) To secure justice by abolishing slavery.
5. Was the use of armed force permitted prior to the United Nations Charter?
 - (a) Armed force was prohibited
 - (b) Armed force was permitted with no restrictions
 - (c) Armed force was permitted subject to few restrictions
 - (d) Armed force was not regulated under international law prior to 1945

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The concept of 'natural law' was first fully developed during the French Revolution as a response to tyranny.
7. True or False: Sir Henry Maine was the first jurist to study the comparative aspect of law, influencing legal scholarship significantly.
8. True or False: Dworkin's theory often promotes greater authoritarian control over individual rights and liberties.
9. True or False: The Historical School asserts that customs inherently become law without the need for judicial recognition.
10. True or False: Codification of the law leads to greater flexibility and adaptability in legal interpretation and application.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the issue of 'fragmentation' in international law, examining how the existence of separate legal regimes can lead to divergent rules and implications for global governance.
12. Discuss the role of civil law in establishing rights between individuals and the mechanisms it provides for redress in cases of rights violations.

End of Paper