

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. An immigrant learning English in the United States is an example of
  - (a) structural assimilation.
  - (b) amalgamation theory.
  - (c) acculturation.
  - (d) adaptation.
2. The largest exporter of agricultural goods in the world is
  - (a) China.
  - (b) Mexico.
  - (c) Chile.
  - (d) the United States.
3. Which language family is most widely spoken in North America and Europe and includes Baltic, Celtic, Germanic, and Greek?
  - (a) Dravidian
  - (b) Uralic-Altaic
  - (c) Sino-Tibetan
  - (d) Indo-European
4. Which of the following is a characteristic of a developed country?
  - (a) Over 50% of workforce engaged in agriculture
  - (b) Women held in inferior place in society
  - (c) Main disease related to age and lifestyle
  - (d) High birth and death rates
5. Which one of the statements below is characteristic of most African cities?
  - (a) They have thriving, clean residential areas.
  - (b) There are jobs for most rural-to-urban migrants.
  - (c) They have three separate business districts.
  - (d) They have a well-developed infrastructure.

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The rectangular land survey system is not based on French and Spanish settlement patterns.
7. True or False: Abuja, Nigeria, is located outside the central core area of the country, serving as its capital since 1991.
8. True or False: Ownership of fertile ground is the primary cause of boundary issues along the United States-Mexico border.
9. True or False: During the third stage of the demographic transition model, birth rates decline and population growth rate slows down.
10. True or False: Swidden agriculture involves planting and harvesting multiple crops in the same field during one growing season.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the spread effects in the core-periphery model of development, and explain why increased infrastructure in the core is not considered a spread effect.
12. Discuss the characteristics of primary and secondary economic activities, and explain why mining copper is classified as a primary economic activity rather than a secondary one.

End of Paper