

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. All of the following are non-basic jobs in the city EXCEPT
 - (a) city firefighter.
 - (b) social worker.
 - (c) dry cleaner.
 - (d) garment factory worker.
2. Which structure(s) traditionally occupies the center of a historic Asian city?
 - (a) A central market
 - (b) High-density housing
 - (c) A religious building
 - (d) Government office buildings
3. The rate of natural increase of a population is found by subtracting the
 - (a) crude death rate from the crude birth date.
 - (b) crude birth rate from the crude death rate.
 - (c) doubling time from the crude birth rate.
 - (d) fertility rate from the crude death rate.
4. When a new fashion design is introduced globally, the information initially travels through a process known as
 - (a) contagious diffusion
 - (b) relocation diffusion
 - (c) innovative diffusion
 - (d) hierarchical diffusion
5. Which one of the following organizations is NOT a supranational organization?
 - (a) UN
 - (b) NATO
 - (c) ASEAN
 - (d) PLO

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The third major migration stream to Canada originated from Eastern Europe.
7. True or False: In the third zone of Burgess's concentric zone model, one can find better houses and higher-rent apartments.
8. True or False: Christianity is experiencing the fastest growth among religions in the United States.
9. True or False: Living closer to amenities has no impact on the frequency of their usage, contradicting the concept of distance decay.
10. True or False: The maritime provinces of Canada experience the greatest temperature extremes due to their coastal climate.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the transition from the European Economic Community (EEC) to the European Union (EU), focusing on the reasons for this change and its impact on European integration.
12. Discuss the implications of a rapidly aging population on healthcare systems in various countries. How do these challenges affect geographic and social structures?

End of Paper