

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. The Rhine River is an example of which type of boundary?
 - (a) Geometric
 - (b) Artificial
 - (c) Natural
 - (d) Relict
2. College students who live in dormitories near the college cafeteria are more likely to eat in the cafeteria. This is an example of
 - (a) gravity concept.
 - (b) distance decay.
 - (c) complementarity.
 - (d) transferability.
3. Ankara, Turkey and Islamabad, Pakistan are both examples of
 - (a) desert cities.
 - (b) forward-thrust capitals.
 - (c) old colonial capitals.
 - (d) rival cities.
4. Which one of the following is NOT a characteristic of world cities?
 - (a) World cities contain the headquarters of many transnational corporations.
 - (b) World cities are well connected to secondary-level world cities.
 - (c) World cities contain many offices of multinational organizations.
 - (d) World cities are found only in the northern and western hemispheres.
5. Which of the following world regions is NOT considered one of the world's most densely populated regions?
 - (a) South Asia
 - (b) Europe
 - (c) South America
 - (d) Northeast United States

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Major languages have historically spread significantly through written records like Sanskrit.
7. True or False: Hasidic Judaism is not an example of syncretism, as it maintains traditional Jewish practices and beliefs.
8. True or False: Malthus believed that wars and famine would naturally balance population growth without any technological influence.
9. True or False: Finland has a significant number of Basque speakers due to its historical connections with the Basque people.
10. True or False: Separatism refers to the drawing of voting districts to promote cooperation between different political parties.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the role of British settlers in establishing the first effective settlements in the eastern United States, and analyze how their cultural influences shaped the region's development.
12. Discuss how the end of the Cold War contributed to the destabilization of Eastern Europe and the rise of ethnic conflicts in the region over the past 25 years.

End of Paper