

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. As of 2017, the share of global deaths by suicide is about
  - (a) 0.70%
  - (b) 1.40%
  - (c) 2.80%
  - (d) 5.60%
2. At its peak, what was the approximate difference in approval of school desegregation from the South and the rest of the U.S.?
  - (a) 80%
  - (b) 40%
  - (c) -40%
  - (d) -80%
3. As of 2015, the global fertility rate was about
  - (a) 1.5 children per woman
  - (b) 2.5 children per woman
  - (c) 3.5 children per woman
  - (d) 4.5 children per woman
4. Which of the following was responsible for the most death in the 20 th century?
  - (a) Earthquakes
  - (b) Volcanic activity
  - (c) Wildfires
  - (d) Floods
5. As of 2020, about what percentage of the world population practices open defecation?
  - (a) 2%
  - (b) 4%
  - (c) 9%
  - (d) 18%

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Articles 46-53 of the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties set out the only ways that treaties can be invalidated-considered unenforceable and void under international law.
7. True or False: Typical second wave corruption metrics do not offer the worldwide coverage found in first wave projects, and instead focus on a different answerizing information gathered to specific problems and creating deep, "unpackable"[clarification needed] content that matches quantitative and qualitative data.
8. True or False: Spanish colonization commenced on June 15, 1668 with the arrival of Diego Luis de San Vitores and Pedro Calungsod, who established the first Catholic church.
9. True or False: Alumnus Eero Saarinen, a different answer architect of such notable structures as the Gateway Arch in St.
10. True or False: Shoots can be elaborate affairs with guns placed in assigned positions and assistants to help load shotguns. When in position, "beaters" move through the areas of cover, swinging sticks or flags to drive the game out. Such events are often called "drives". The open season for grouse in the UK begins on 12 August, the so-called Glorious Twelfth.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Read the following passage and answer the question: During 1824-28 Chopin spent his vacations away from Warsaw, at a number of locales.[n 4] In 1824 and 1825, at Szafarnia, he was a guest of Dominik Dziewanowski, the father of a schoolmate. Here for the first time he encountered Polish rural folk music. His letters home from Szafarnia (to which he gave the title "The Szafarnia Courier"), written in a very modern and lively Polish, amused his family with their spoofing of the Warsaw newspapers and demonstrated the youngster's literary gift. Question: What was the title chopin gave of some spoof letters he wrote?
12. Read the following passage and answer the question: As the 10 th century progressed, the Khazars were no longer able to command tribute from the Volga Bulgars, and their relationship with the Byzantines deteriorated, as Byzantium increasingly allied with the Pechenegs against them. The Pechenegs were thus secure to raid the lands of the Khazars from their base between the Volga and Don rivers, allowing them to expand to the west. Rus' relations with the Pechenegs were complex, as the groups alternately formed alliances with and against one another. The Pechenegs were nomads roaming the steppe raising livestock which they traded with the Rus' for agricultural goods and other products. The lucrative Rus' trade with the Byzantine Empire had to pass through Pecheneg-controlled territory, so the need for generally peaceful relations was essential... Question: What did the Pechenges trade with the Rus?

End of Paper