

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Your first action following confirmation of cardiac arrest is to:
 - (a) ensure the emergency team/services are called.
 - (b) administer an electric shock using a defibrillator.
 - (c) give 30 chest compressions.
 - (d) check the notes to see if the patient has a DNAR order.
 - (e) rush the patient to the emergency room.
2. Which of the following cannot be a substrate for gluconeogenesis?
 - (a) Palmitic acid
 - (b) Pyruvate
 - (c) Galactose
 - (d) Glycerol
 - (e) Propionic acid
3. Life stories are more likely for people who have a sense of
 - (a) Superiority
 - (b) Guilt
 - (c) Personal control
 - (d) Material wealth
 - (e) Humor
4. Which of the following is NOT one of the more frequently named activities by those who are retired?
 - (a) Starting a new business
 - (b) Working part-time
 - (c) Mountain climbing
 - (d) Household chores
 - (e) Travel
5. If the frequency of males affected with an X-linked recessive condition in a human population is .10 (one in ten), what will be the expected frequency of affected females?
 - (a) 0.001
 - (b) 0.01

- (c) 0.1
- (d) 0.15
- (e) 0.0011

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Vitamin D plays a critical role as a lipid-soluble antioxidant in protecting cellular membranes.
7. True or False: Macrostomia results from the failure of fusion of the left and right maxillary processes during embryonic development.
8. True or False: Cerebrospinal fluid circulates between the skull and the dura mater surrounding the brain.
9. True or False: Overactive T-helper cells are the primary reason for the failure of CD 8 cell responses in chronic HIV infection.
10. True or False: Damage to the third cranial nerve can result in pupillary dilatation and a downward strabismus in affected patients.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the role of genetic factors in longevity, alongside mental stimulation, exercise, and diet, and analyze how they collectively contribute to a long and healthy life.
12. Discuss the prevalence of alcoholic myopathy among individuals with alcohol use disorder, analyzing the contributing factors and implications for treatment and health outcomes.

End of Paper