

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. The position that abortion is murder is held by certain people in which religion?
 - (a) Orthodox Jews
 - (b) Fundamentalist Protestants
 - (c) Eastern Orthodox Christians
 - (d) all of the above
2. Which of the following is flexible connective tissue that is attached to bones at the joints?
 - (a) Adipose
 - (b) Cartilage
 - (c) Epithelial
 - (d) Muscle
3. Fetishism typically develops at the age of:
 - (a) 30 through 50
 - (b) at birth
 - (c) 10 through 20
 - (d) 20 through 30
4. Metamemory refers to
 - (a) Semantic memory
 - (b) Knowledge about memory
 - (c) Long-term memory for major events
 - (d) All memory components together
5. Severe anaemia at birth is a feature of what?
 - (a) Alpha-thalassaemia
 - (b) Beta-thalassaemia
 - (c) Hereditary persistence of fetal haemoglobin
 - (d) Sickle cell disease

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Institutional care promotes independence among older residents by encouraging self-sufficiency and personal responsibility.
7. True or False: Troilism is often viewed as the most dangerous sexual variation, primarily due to its potential for emotional harm.
8. True or False: The high expense of polio vaccines is the primary barrier to their widespread use globally.
9. True or False: Both nature and nurture are essential factors influencing human development across various theoretical frameworks.
10. True or False: Providing comfort and reminiscing about happier times is an example of emotional social support.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the factors contributing to the high risk of HIV transmission from infected mothers to their infants in Africa, considering social, economic, and healthcare aspects.
12. Discuss the role of saliva in the digestion of starches, including the specific enzyme involved and its mechanism of action on this nutrient.

End of Paper