

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. With which of the following relatives is an individual most likely to share a common HLA haplotype?
 - (a) Father
 - (b) Mother
 - (c) Sister
 - (d) Son
2. The official condemnation by the Catholic Church of artificial birth control is set forth in _____ encyclical called Humanae Vitae.
 - (a) Pope John II's
 - (b) Pope Paul VI's
 - (c) Pope John Paul I's
 - (d) Pope John Paul II's
3. The houses of the future may allow you to operate virtually everything in the house from a central terminal; such a house is already in production and is referred to as
 - (a) Technohouse
 - (b) Compuhouse
 - (c) Futurehouse
 - (d) Smarthouse
4. According to Byrne's law of attraction and his formula, we are attracted to people who:
 - (a) provide a lot of reinforcement and a small amount of punishment
 - (b) provide more punishment than reinforcement
 - (c) provide an equal balance of punishment and reinforcement
 - (d) are extremely attractive and provide a lot of reinforcement
5. Of the following types of memory, which shows the biggest deficit with advanced age?
 - (a) Sensory memory
 - (b) Episodic memory
 - (c) Semantic memory
 - (d) Procedural memory

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Glucose-6-phosphate dehydrogenase (G 6 PD) deficiency is inherited in an X-linked recessive manner.
7. True or False: Jeanne Calment holds the record for the longest-lived human being, living to 122 years old.
8. True or False: During the pharyngeal phase of swallowing, constriction of the laryngeal entrance prevents food from entering the larynx.
9. True or False: Open-ended questions on a survey typically lead to quicker data collection compared to closed-ended questions.
10. True or False: A person with a rating of 4 on the Kinsey scale is classified as mostly heterosexual with incidental homosexual experience.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the role of the MMR vaccine in controlling measles outbreaks globally, analyzing its impact on public health and vaccination strategies in various countries.
12. Discuss the mechanisms by which certain drugs, such as cocaine, activate the sympathetic nervous system and inhibit sexual performance, including potential physiological and psychological effects.

End of Paper