

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. "Test and treat" depends on:
 - (a) The proportion of infected persons willing to be tested
 - (b) The willingness of persons testing HIV positive to begin treatment
 - (c) The availability of resources for persons testing HIV positive
 - (d) All of the above
2. Those who spend time caring for a family member with advanced dementia are likely to experience
 - (a) The same dementia
 - (b) Depression
 - (c) A different dementia
 - (d) Social isolation
3. PreP is most effective for which group:
 - (a) Men with frequent unprotected sex
 - (b) Men with infrequent unprotected sex
 - (c) Women with frequent unprotected sex
 - (d) Women with infrequent unprotected sex
4. Pharyngeal mucosa is innervated by the glossopharyngeal nerves because it develops from the
 - (a) first pharyngeal arch.
 - (b) second pharyngeal arch.
 - (c) third pharyngeal arch.
 - (d) fourth pharyngeal arch.
5. Women's ability to have multiple orgasms is primarily due to:
 - (a) the fact that they do not have a refractory period.
 - (b) the response of the inner layers of the vagina.
 - (c) having alternating orgasms in different locations.
 - (d) the G-Spot.

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The epididymis surrounds the urethra at the neck of the bladder in men.
7. True or False: The duration of the refractory period experienced by men varies significantly, lasting from a few minutes to 24 hours.
8. True or False: Cognitive symptoms are less likely to occur in Parkinson's disease compared to other types of dementia.
9. True or False: Syphilis can be transmitted from mother to child through the placenta during pregnancy.
10. True or False: A vasectomy is commonly associated with decreased testosterone production.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the significance of social support in the grieving process, particularly how maintaining close contact with bereaved individuals can influence their healing and coping strategies.
12. Discuss the role of interferons in the immune response, focusing on their mechanism of action in binding to neighboring cells and the implications for viral defense.

End of Paper