

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. With which of the following techniques were the native navigators of the Pacific NOT familiar?
 - (a) bird flight paths
 - (b) currents and wind patterns
 - (c) magnetic orientation to the poles
 - (d) cloud patterns
2. Which crop is South America's most significant agricultural contribution to Europe?
 - (a) rice
 - (b) potatoes
 - (c) squash
 - (d) beans
3. Which area is home to the tradition of making stone tools from chipped pebbles, called Hoabinhian?
 - (a) Australia
 - (b) North America
 - (c) Europe
 - (d) Asia
4. The spread of a shared religious iconography in ancient civilizations may be an indication of what?
 - (a) decreased violence and a time of increased peace
 - (b) cultural and perhaps political unification
 - (c) increased trade and the use of some form of money
 - (d) the beginning of organized religion and ending of human sacrifice
5. Archaeological evidence for the collapse of civilizations suggests which of the following is the most important variable?
 - (a) whether warfare can be ended
 - (b) changing environmental conditions
 - (c) how societies respond to challenges
 - (d) the ability of bureaucracies to store food and feed its people

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: In 1797, John Frere found animal remains scattered on the surface of the ground.
7. True or False: When Christopher Columbus arrived, the New World had approximately 100,000 inhabitants.
8. True or False: Many archaeologists believe that Australia was occupied no earlier than 20,000 years ago.
9. True or False: Artifacts must be carefully exposed and left in place to accurately record their spatial contexts and associations.
10. True or False: The Indus Valley civilization became increasingly complex due to increased rainfall and longer growing seasons.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the significance of ritual ball games in Hohokam culture and analyze how this practice reflects their interaction with Mesoamerican influences.
12. Discuss the significance of the finely crafted large jade disks found in some burials at the Liangzhu site and what they reveal about elite status in ancient Chinese society.

End of Paper