

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. The 30 upright stones at Stonehenge are called _____; the horizontal stones are _____.
 - (a) legumes, sarsens
 - (b) lintels, stelae
 - (c) sarsens, lintels
 - (d) trilithon, tholoi
2. A proposed explanation for some phenomenon that may be derived initially from empirical observation through a process called induction is a:
 - (a) deduction.
 - (b) theory.
 - (c) hypothesis.
 - (d) scientific method.
3. Upon exploring Rhode Island, the Italian navigator Giovanni de Verrazzano noted that the native people resembled:
 - (a) Italians.
 - (b) Asians.
 - (c) Australians.
 - (d) Melanesians.
4. In primates, the location of which of the following determines if it is a quadruped or biped?
 - (a) the feet
 - (b) the skull
 - (c) the foramen magnum
 - (d) the ulna
5. What was the Chinese technique of stamped or pounded earth that was used in construction of house walls and defensive structures?
 - (a) Hang-t'u
 - (b) Scapulimancy
 - (c) Lung-shan
 - (d) Qin manufacture

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The levels of ^{13}C in bones can determine if someone ate mostly meat or vegetables.
7. True or False: The sagittal crest is a ridge of bone found on the forehead, not above the eye orbits.
8. True or False: Neandertals had smaller brains and larger noses than modern Homo sapiens, which is a common misconception.
9. True or False: The Adena culture was centered in the Ohio River valley around 2,800 years ago.
10. True or False: Diffusionism is the theory that characteristics of civilization spread from a central location to other regions.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the factors that contributed to the preservation of the wooden spears found at the 300,000-year-old site in Schöningen, Germany, and their significance in understanding early human life.
12. Discuss the origins of Minoan civilization, focusing on the factors that contributed to its unique development on Crete, and analyze the influences of local and external cultures.

End of Paper