

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Virtually all of the crops important in the European Neolithic:
 - (a) were domesticated at the same time at communal farms.
 - (b) were domesticated before groups became sedentary.
 - (c) were independently domesticated in Europe
 - (d) were imported from other regions.
2. What were the mastaba?
 - (a) clay tablets that represent the earliest known form of writing in the world
 - (b) mud-brick structures built over elite tombs that were subsequently developed into pyramids
 - (c) irrigation canals that allowed for the production of agricultural surpluses in Egypt
 - (d) the ritual headdress of the religious-political leaders of Mesopotamia
3. On which continent are most of the Venus figurines found?
 - (a) Europe
 - (b) Africa
 - (c) Asia
 - (d) Australia
4. What best characterizes the subsistence strategies of the North American Archaic period?
 - (a) increased reliance on farming
 - (b) decreased reliance on shellfish
 - (c) greater regional differentiation
 - (d) active trading between the North and South
5. How have archaeologists characterized the monuments built by the Olmec?
 - (a) Halafian ritual monuments
 - (b) megalithic chiefdoms
 - (c) surplus food storage centers
 - (d) regal-ritual centers

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Finely carved obsidian statuary was the first evidence of complexity in Mayan societies around 2650 B.P.
7. True or False: Paleoindians selected the Gault site primarily due to the abundance of wild game and fish in the area.
8. True or False: Uniformitarianism is described as 'the slow agency of existing causes' in explaining geological changes over time.
9. True or False: A potlatch is a ceremonial event among certain Indigenous peoples where wealth is redistributed to the community.
10. True or False: Humans do not directly descend from chimpanzees, gorillas, or orangutans, but share a common ancestor with them.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the significance of various crops in the subsistence strategies of the Hopewell culture, highlighting why maize was not among the important components.
12. Discuss four key characteristics of civilization and analyze how each contributes to the development and sustainability of early societies.

End of Paper