

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Unlike Mesopotamian writings, the records left by the Maya are principally concerned with:
 - (a) political and military history.
 - (b) philosophy and religion.
 - (c) trade and economics.
 - (d) astronomy and mathematics.
2. The idea that cultures change through time in relation to their environments, along many different paths, is known as:
 - (a) unilineal evolution.
 - (b) environmental uniformitarianism.
 - (c) multicultural adaptation.
 - (d) multilineal evolution.
3. Which foods are included in the triad of plants that provided the subsistence base for indigenous New World civilizations?
 - (a) maize, beans, and squash
 - (b) maize, lentils, and wheat
 - (c) rice, beans, and squash
 - (d) yams, maize, and millet
4. What was the unifying element of Olmec culture?
 - (a) religious iconography
 - (b) large armies
 - (c) agricultural surpluses
 - (d) all of the above
5. The ridge of bone that runs along the top of the skull in Australopithecus robustus is called a:
 - (a) diastema.
 - (b) cranium.
 - (c) maxilla.
 - (d) sagittal crest.

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Excavation of Yang-shao sites in China indicates the domestication of wheat, rice, and peas.
7. True or False: Primatology is the study of Earth's layers and their historical significance in human evolution.
8. True or False: Pompeii was well preserved because a layer of volcanic pumice created a seal over the remains after the eruption of Mount Vesuvius.
9. True or False: Capacocha involved sacrificing captives of war to appease the sun god in Incan tradition.
10. True or False: The pharaoh ruled a population of 3,000,000, of which 75% were farmers.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the differences between Aurignacian and Mousterian technologies, focusing on how the production of usable blade surfaces influenced their respective uses and developments.
12. Discuss the significance of the appearance of the earliest members of the human family in the context of the entire history of the universe as depicted in the author's two-hour film.

End of Paper