

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. According to Hobbes, the definition of injustice is _____.
 - (a) failure to abide by a contract
 - (b) disregard for societal norms
 - (c) acting against the welfare of others
 - (d) disobedience to parental authority
 - (e) disobedience to God's law
2. Kant claims that the moral law is given to each person by:
 - (a) one's own will.
 - (b) one's own emotions.
 - (c) God.
 - (d) Nature.
 - (e) the universe.
3. One example of bad constitutive moral luck would be:
 - (a) a person who donates to charity regularly.
 - (b) all of the above.
 - (c) a person who lived in Nazi Germany in 1940.
 - (d) a person who drives drunk and hits a child.
 - (e) none of the above.
4. Of the following social problems that could result from a genetic supermarket, which does Singer think is the least serious?
 - (a) loss of human diversity
 - (b) the effects of engineering children to have positional goods
 - (c) loss of equality of opportunity
 - (d) increased disparity between the rich and the poor
5. The study of reality in the broadest sense, an inquiry into the elemental nature of the universe and the things in it, is known as _____.
 - (a) quantum physics
 - (b) metaphysics
 - (c) ontology
 - (d) phenomenology
 - (e) cosmology

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Moral absolutism asserts that moral principles are universally applicable even in wartime scenarios.
7. True or False: The rejection of the anthropomorphic view of the divine by Greek philosophers took place in the early First Century BCE.
8. True or False: In a conditional syllogism, denying the antecedent results in no valid conclusion being drawn.
9. True or False: The term 'Tripitaka' refers to the 'Three baskets' of Buddhist scriptures, which are foundational to the tradition.
10. True or False: The Oral Torah, in its written form, is known as the Talmud, which compiles both the Mishnah and Gemara.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss how Aldo Leopold's perspective on environmental ethics challenges the notion that environmental issues are solely economic, and analyze the implications of this view for ecological policy.
12. Discuss Stevenson's response to the critique that his theory fails to address objective goodness known a priori, and analyze the implications of his claim of misunderstanding this property.

End of Paper