

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Epicurus conceives of death as:
 - (a) the greatest harm that one can suffer.
 - (b) an illusion that does not truly exist.
 - (c) the transformation into a higher being.
 - (d) one component of the continuous cycle of rebirth.
 - (e) a state of eternal suffering.
2. Which of the following is a value that Arthur believes is more fundamental than rights and desert?
 - (a) justice
 - (b) fairness
 - (c) respect for other persons
 - (d) all of the above
3. "To be valid, the minor premise must either agree with the antecedent, or disagree with the consequent" is a requirement for
 - (a) a categorical enthymeme
 - (b) a conditional syllogism
 - (c) a disjunctive inference
 - (d) a distributive syllogism
 - (e) a hypothetical syllogism
4. Singer claims that famine relief organizations direct our aid to distant refugees:
 - (a) with a focus on quantity over quality, leading to possible misallocation.
 - (b) very inefficiently, and are therefore not worth donating to.
 - (c) with a high level of bureaucracy and corruption, therefore not recommended.
 - (d) more effectively than we could get it to our close neighbors.
 - (e) extremely efficiently, making them the only viable option for aid distribution.
5. Arguing that what is true of an entire object is also true of each part of that object is the fallacy of
 - (a) appeal to ignorance
 - (b) straw man

- (c) bandwagon
- (d) division
- (e) false cause

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: According to Kant, the moral worth of an action is determined by the maxim that is acted upon by the agent.
7. True or False: Singer contends that developing nations promote traditional educational systems to enhance cultural preservation in poor nations.
8. True or False: The principle of military necessity is a component of just war theory's principle of proportionality.
9. True or False: A sarcastic response to an argument can exemplify the tu quoque fallacy by diverting attention to the opponent's behavior.
10. True or False: Hume argued that reason should completely suppress our passions for a rational life.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Construct a complete truth table for the argument $(G \supset H) \cdot \sim I, \sim G \supset (\sim H \supset I) / G$. Analyze its validity and provide a counterexample if it is invalid, discussing the implications of your findings.
12. Discuss Nathanson's argument regarding the forfeiture of privacy rights by murderers. How does this perspective challenge or support existing philosophical views on rights and morality?

End of Paper