

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Anscombe claims that the notion of moral obligation is derived from the concept of:
 - (a) preference.
 - (b) natural law.
 - (c) self-interest.
 - (d) maximizing utility.
 - (e) ethical relativism.
2. Berkeley insists that heat and cold are _____.
 - (a) elements of nature that do not exist independently
 - (b) only things existing apart from our minds
 - (c) only sensations existing in our minds
 - (d) physical objects
 - (e) manifestations of our subconscious
3. Aesthetics deals with objects that are _____.
 - (a) not essential to our existence
 - (b) frequently used in daily life
 - (c) not visible to the human eye
 - (d) only appreciated by experts
 - (e) universally liked
4. According to Stevenson, the word "good" has a pleasing emotive meaning that fits it for:
 - (a) dynamic use.
 - (b) descriptive use.
 - (c) inferential use.
 - (d) propositional use.
 - (e) expressive use.
5. Nathanson proposes a form of retributivism that requires all of the following except
 - (a) a list of crimes ranked according to their seriousness.
 - (b) a scale of punishments that correspond to the seriousness of certain crimes.
 - (c) treating criminals humanely.
 - (d) the death penalty for the most serious crimes.

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Dershowitz endorses prolonged sleep deprivation as an appropriate method of torture under certain circumstances.
7. True or False: According to Anscombe, 'moral obligation' signifies the beliefs of a certain culture.
8. True or False: Evading the issue is often referred to as a hasty generalization in argumentative contexts.
9. True or False: In Japanese culture, it is believed that God is eternal and shows mercy to those who engage in worship.
10. True or False: Taurek maintains that the death of two people is always morally worse than the death of one individual.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss Michael Walzer's four main excuses for terrorism, and critically evaluate why the assertion that terrorism is a form of freedom of speech does not fit within his framework.
12. Discuss the slippery-slope argument in philosophy, focusing on when it becomes fallacious and the implications of asserting inevitable consequences from a single action.

End of Paper