

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Nagel claims that prior to reflection, it is plausible that people cannot be morally assessed for:
 - (a) actions that affect only themselves.
 - (b) actions performed under duress.
 - (c) actions that do not violate anyone's rights.
 - (d) actions that benefit others.
 - (e) what is due to factors beyond their control.
2. Which of the following fallacies happen if someone argues that you are a reasonable and intelligent person, so of course you understand his claim is true?
 - (a) argument from authority
 - (b) ad hominem attack
 - (c) begging the question
 - (d) red herring
 - (e) significance
3. Hume claims that a person who is unaffected by images of human happiness or misery will also be indifferent to:
 - (a) art and beauty.
 - (b) love and hatred.
 - (c) virtue and vice.
 - (d) success and failure.
 - (e) truth and falsehood.
4. Which mystic believed that evil was a distortion that reveals divine love more clearly?
 - (a) Thomas Aquinas
 - (b) Catherine of Siena
 - (c) Teresa of Avila
 - (d) Hildegard of Bingen
 - (e) John of the Cross
5. Baxter claims that his "very general way" of stating what we should strive for environmentally assumes that

- (a) we have unlimited resources to address environmental issues.
- (b) human satisfaction is the only measure of environmental success.
- (c) we can measure in some way the incremental units of human satisfaction.
- (d) we can precisely predict the environmental impact of our actions.
- (e) the environment is solely a human construct.

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

- 6. True or False: According to Nathanson, criminals who commit murder forfeit their right to humane treatment.
- 7. True or False: Anscombe argues that on Sidgwick's view, the badness of an action must be assessed in light of whether it upholds social justice.
- 8. True or False: Rawls argues that students with fewer native assets should receive less attention and fewer resources than those with more native assets.
- 9. True or False: Stevenson claims that the primary use of ethical judgments is to influence the interests of others.
- 10. True or False: The argument commits the fallacy of ad hominem by attacking Timothy's character instead of addressing the argument's logic.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

- 11. Discuss the concept of basic intrinsic goods in Aquinas's natural law theory. Analyze their significance and interrelation within his ethical framework.
- 12. Discuss Velleman's concerns regarding euthanasia, particularly focusing on how it may burden patients with the need to justify their continued existence.

End of Paper