

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Why is NSC 68 seen as a turning point in US Cold War Foreign policy?
 - (a) It indicated the primacy of economic containment
 - (b) It indicated a desire to engage with the Soviet Union
 - (c) It indicated a shift towards military containment
 - (d) It dispensed with the idea of containment
2. Which of these is not a component of the 'American Creed'?
 - (a) Liberty
 - (b) Equality
 - (c) Autocracy
 - (d) Individualism
3. How did the Cold War context shape US perceptions of the Third World?
 - (a) The US ignored the Third World
 - (b) Local developments were viewed through a geopolitical lens
 - (c) The US unreservedly supported decolonization
 - (d) None of the above
4. Which of the following concepts does NOT form part of the technical discourse on cyber- security?
 - (a) Business networks
 - (b) Computer experts
 - (c) Anti-virus industry
 - (d) Computer networks
5. What, according to Systemic theories, is the primary determinant of a state's foreign policy?
 - (a) The character of a state's leader
 - (b) The distribution of power in the international system
 - (c) The distribution of power within a state's governmental system
 - (d) A state's political ideology

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Kennedy claimed that all leading economies, including the United States, were thriving and showed no signs of decline.
7. True or False: International institutions primarily focus on regulating trade and economic growth without addressing security-related issues.
8. True or False: Intergovernmental organizations often struggle to obtain sufficient information about which leaders are likely to abuse human rights.
9. True or False: Critical Information Infrastructures serve as the primary referent object in contemporary cyber-security frameworks.
10. True or False: The George W. Bush administration criticized international organizations instead of seeking to strengthen their roles in global governance.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss how the security dimensions of infectious disease can be integrated into a national security framework, considering political, social, and economic implications.
12. Discuss how the evolving global security environment in the twenty-first century influences the nature of conflicts, focusing on human migration, resource scarcity, and population disempowerment.

End of Paper