

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Within Critical Security Studies, what is the referent object of security?
 - (a) There is no specific referent point.
 - (b) The state and state apparatus.
 - (c) The environment.
 - (d) The people and their collectives.
2. What fact impinged upon America's 'neutral' stance towards the belligerent in World War I between 1915 and 1917?
 - (a) US banks funded the allies much more than Germany and Austria-Hungary
 - (b) US banks funded Germany and Austria-Hungary much more than the allies
 - (c) Wilson secretly favoured the German position
 - (d) None of the above
3. In which of these wars did the overwhelming technological superiority of one side lead to rapid defeat of its enemy?
 - (a) Vietnam War.
 - (b) Second World War.
 - (c) First World War.
 - (d) 1991 Gulf War.
4. In what way did the George W Bush administration change the direction of US foreign policy?
 - (a) It criticized international organizations, rather than trying to strengthen them
 - (b) It expanded NATO to include former Soviet states
 - (c) It focused on a more personal style of leadership
 - (d) It increased international support for the United States
5. What led Britain to impose new taxes on their American colonies?
 - (a) To increase the wealth of King George III
 - (b) The growing costs of war with France
 - (c) Anger at America's growing prosperity
 - (d) Pressure from rich merchants

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: American exceptionalism promotes the idea that a world government would enhance global cooperation and stability.
7. True or False: The National Security Council is the government body responsible for coordinating American foreign and military policy.
8. True or False: The United Nations is widely regarded as the most significant international organization in promoting global peace and cooperation.
9. True or False: All 15 members of the United Nations Security Council possess veto power regardless of their permanent or rotating status.
10. True or False: NSC-68 primarily focused on diplomatic solutions to contain communism rather than military escalation and nuclear development.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the various factors that can influence a state's decision to join an alliance such as NATO, analyzing the political, economic, and security motivations involved.
12. Discuss the significance of the 1994 Human Development Report in shaping contemporary political discourse on development and human well-being.

End of Paper