

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Why do realists tend to object to the influence of exceptionalism on American foreign policy?
 - (a) It leads to a diminished focus on collective security
 - (b) It diminishes the prospects for world government
 - (c) It enhances the prospects for world government
 - (d) It leads to a diminished focus on security, power and interest
2. In American government, the power to declare war rests with
 - (a) the president of the United States.
 - (b) the secretary of defense.
 - (c) the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.
 - (d) Congress.
3. What did Paul Kennedy argue in his book The Rise and Fall of the Great Powers?
 - (a) All of the world's leading economies were declining due to low growth and inflation
 - (b) The United States could no longer remain a superpower and was in decline
 - (c) The soft power of the United States would allow it to avoid decline
 - (d) The rise of Japan had been exaggerated
4. The Strategic Arms Reduction Treaty was the first accord
 - (a) on nuclear weapons signed between the United States and the Soviet Union.
 - (b) cutting conventional arms in Europe.
 - (c) to be rejected by the U.S. Senate.
 - (d) mandating the elimination of many long-range nuclear missiles.
5. Why do Liberal Internationalists argue that international institutions are important to US grand strategy?
 - (a) They allow the US to withdraw from the international arena
 - (b) They serve American interests
 - (c) The US is incapable of acting alone
 - (d) None of the above

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The Bretton Woods Conference established the International Monetary Fund, the US Dollar as the reserve currency, and the GATT to stabilize the global economy.
7. True or False: Trade is primarily viewed as a diplomatic tool in the context of security policy.
8. True or False: Rosenau argues that the foreign policy behavior of the United States is influenced by the international system, domestic factors, and the President's persona...
9. True or False: Pervasive violence is not one of the three forms of violence identified by postcolonialism, which include material, epistemic, and structural violence.
10. True or False: Terrorists, organized crime, and drug traffickers are all state actors that threaten U.S. national security.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the reasons why some governmental regimes are hesitant to fully embrace liberalism, and critically analyze which factors may be overstated or misinterpreted in this reluctance.
12. Analyze the evolution of coercive diplomacy by Western powers since the end of the Cold War, focusing on the geopolitical factors that have shaped their strategies and interventions.

End of Paper