

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Which of the following represent a move away from traditional interpretations of security studies?
 - (a) Critical questioning.
 - (b) Realist logic.
 - (c) State-centric security analysis.
 - (d) All of these options.
2. Which of the following are possible constraints on US foreign policy decision making?
 - (a) Foreign policies of other states
 - (b) International law
 - (c) Intergovernmental organizations
 - (d) All of the above
3. Which of the following is the largest source of "automatic spending" for the federal government?
 - (a) Salaries to employees of the U.S. Post Office
 - (b) Interest payments made to U.S. bondholders
 - (c) Entitlement programs
 - (d) National defense
4. A Supreme Court that demonstrates a willingness to change public policy and alter judicial precedent is said to be engaging in
 - (a) judicial activism
 - (b) due process
 - (c) judicial restraint
 - (d) ex post facto lawmaking
5. How did NSC-68 change U.S. strategy?
 - (a) It globalized containment.
 - (b) It militarized containment.
 - (c) It called for the development of the hydrogen bomb.
 - (d) All of the above

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: Congress aims to shield independent regulatory agencies from political influence by mandating leadership from both major political parties.
7. True or False: Socio-economic accounts of US Cold War foreign policy primarily emphasize class and economic interests influencing decision-making.
8. True or False: There is no imposition of a fine on non-voters in the United States, despite low voter turnout leading to various consequences.
9. True or False: Governments often utilize their military forces to achieve specific policy objectives in the international arena.
10. True or False: Human society is a dynamic and evolving phenomenon, not constant and unchanging.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the various external challenges faced by weak states, analyzing their implications on sovereignty, stability, and international relations.
12. Discuss the traditional support of various demographic groups for the Democratic Party and analyze which group historically represents the least liberal constituency, providing reasons for your conclusion.

End of Paper