

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. A member of which of the following demographic groups is most likely to support a Republican presidential candidate?
 - (a) Married white male
 - (b) Unmarried white female
 - (c) African American, male or female
 - (d) Youths under the age of 25, male or female
2. Which of the following is a legitimate threat to societal security?
 - (a) Political policies designed to alter demographic characteristics of a state.
 - (b) All of these options.
 - (c) Legislation that criminalises certain cultural behaviours or practice.
 - (d) The use of military force to conduct ethnic-cleansing through displacement and killing.
3. Which of the following is an example of "horse-race journalism"?
 - (a) A news story focuses on a politician's scandals rather than achievements.
 - (b) A television news anchor reports an event before the station's rivals.
 - (c) A reporter announces which candidate leads in a public opinion poll.
 - (d) A newspaper editor prints stories about long-term political developments.
4. Which of the following has the Supreme Court held about the death penalty?
 - (a) The death penalty may only be imposed upon citizens.
 - (b) Under some circumstances, the death penalty may not violate the Eighth Amendment.
 - (c) Under some circumstances, the death penalty may violate the Third Amendment.
 - (d) States may execute any adult regardless of intellectual disability.
5. Which of the following points supports the argument for American unilateralism?
 - (a) Benevolent hegemony
 - (b) Ineffectiveness of multilateralism
 - (c) American power
 - (d) All of the above

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: A motion for cloture is used in the Senate to end a filibuster and force a vote on a bill.
7. True or False: The Constitution established checks and balances to prevent any one branch of government from becoming too powerful.
8. True or False: In American government, the power to declare war is constitutionally granted to Congress.
9. True or False: In an open primary, voters registered as independents are not allowed to vote in any party's primary election.
10. True or False: The significance of oil in U.S. foreign policy underscores the increasing reliance on economic instruments for achieving foreign policy goals.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the role of domestic concerns in the United States as identified by Revisionists as a primary cause of the Cold War, and analyze how these factors influenced U.S. foreign policy.
12. Discuss the significance of a post-structuralist critique in security studies, analyzing its contributions to understanding power dynamics, identity, and social constructs in global security.

End of Paper