

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Peace, commerce, and honest friendship with all nations, entangling alliances with none'. Identify the speaker.
 - (a) James Madison
 - (b) Abraham Lincoln
 - (c) Woodrow Wilson
 - (d) Thomas Jefferson
2. Every ten years, the majority of state legislatures are responsible for
 - (a) redrawing congressional district boundaries
 - (b) electing a new state governor
 - (c) evaluating the physical accessibility of polling venues
 - (d) deciding where to construct new elementary schools
3. A member of the House of Representatives wishing to influence tax policy would most likely try to serve on which of the following committees?
 - (a) Commerce
 - (b) Ways and Means
 - (c) Education and the Workforce
 - (d) Resources
4. The primary goal of the Gramm-Rudman Acts of 1985 and 1987 was to
 - (a) strengthen the military
 - (b) increase funding for social programs
 - (c) reduce the federal deficit
 - (d) limit the president's ability to conduct foreign policy
5. What did Paul Kennedy argue in his book The Rise and Fall of the Great Powers?
 - (a) All of the world's leading economies were declining due to low growth and inflation
 - (b) The United States could no longer remain a superpower and was in decline
 - (c) The soft power of the United States would allow it to avoid decline
 - (d) The rise of Japan had been exaggerated

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The constitutional definition of presidential powers is broad and unspecific, leading to uncertainty over their limits.
7. True or False: A presidential nominee to the Supreme Court must receive fifty-one percent of the Senate votes to be confirmed.
8. True or False: The original five permanent members of the UN Security Council are the United States, Soviet Union, France, Great Britain, and Republic of China.
9. True or False: The United Nations is the best known and most important international organization in the world.
10. True or False: Revenue bills must be initiated in the House of Representatives as stipulated by the origination clause of the Constitution.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the relationship between federal and state judiciaries, focusing on their autonomy and the role of federal courts in reviewing state court decisions for constitutionality.
12. Discuss how the Marxist perspective interprets the driving forces behind U.S. foreign policy, particularly in relation to the pursuit of new markets.

End of Paper