

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. A neutral stimulus that signals an unconditioned stimulus begins to produce a response that anticipates and prepares for the unconditioned stimulus during
 - (a) shaping
 - (b) backward conditioning
 - (c) habituation
 - (d) generalization
 - (e) acquisition trials
2. Most suicides do not want to die. Discuss. What are the measures taken by suicide prevention counselors?
 - (a) Tell them to stay busy to distract themselves from their thoughts
 - (b) Discourage them from talking about their thoughts or feelings to anyone
 - (c) Encourage the use of alcohol or drugs to cope with their feelings
 - (d) Avoid discussing the person's problems
 - (e) Suggest that their feelings are not that serious and will pass in time
3. Which of the following correctly completes the analogy: "Vision is to hearing as
 - (a) parietal lobe is to frontal lobe."
 - (b) temporal lobe is to parietal lobe."
 - (c) temporal lobe is to frontal lobe."
 - (d) occipital lobe is to parietal lobe."
 - (e) parietal lobe is to occipital lobe."
4. Which of the following strategies would probably be least effective for reducing aggressiveness in children?
 - (a) social skills training
 - (b) encouraging competitive sports and games
 - (c) exposure to a nonaggressive model
 - (d) opportunities for catharsis
5. What is construct validity?
 - (a) Construct validity is the physical representation of a test
 - (b) Construct validity is the cultural relevance of a test to various groups.

- (c) Construct validity is the ease of conducting a test
- (d) Construct validity is the environmental impact of administering a test.
- (e) Construct validity refers to the transparency of the test-making process.

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

- 6. True or False: Mandatory health screenings for all students are typically categorized as primary prevention strategies in educational settings.
- 7. True or False: Standardized tests allow for a person's performance to be compared with a pilot group to assess relative achievement.
- 8. True or False: Time-out procedures rely on positive punishment by adding an aversive stimulus to reduce unwanted behaviors.
- 9. True or False: The incidence of schizophrenia in the general population is approximately 1 in 100 individuals.
- 10. True or False: The heritability for traits of a cloned population is typically considered to be around 50%.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

- 11. Discuss how information processing theory accounts for the ability to read rapidly for meaning, considering factors such as language redundancy and prior knowledge.
- 12. Discuss the cultural values commonly associated with Asians and Asian Americans, and analyze why fatalism is considered less characteristic of these groups.

End of Paper