

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. _____ memory is the aspect of memory that is involved in the recall of information acquired within the past few hours to days.
 - (a) Episodic
 - (b) Declarative
 - (c) Semantic
 - (d) Working
 - (e) Echoic
2. According to Irvin Yalom, _____ in group therapy is the analogue of the therapist-client relationship in individual therapy.
 - (a) identification
 - (b) alliance
 - (c) interpersonal learning
 - (d) disclosure
 - (e) catharsis
3. If a psychologist acts as both a fact witness for the plaintiff and an expert witness for the court in a criminal trial, she has acted:
 - (a) unethically unless she obtains a waiver from the plaintiff.
 - (b) ethically as long as she did not have a prior relationship with the plaintiff.
 - (c) unethically unless she has a prior relationship with the defendant.
 - (d) ethically as long as she maintains neutrality throughout the trial.
 - (e) ethically only if she has a prior relationship with the defendant.
4. Each of the following is a step taken by a therapist who is employing systematic desensitization EXCEPT
 - (a) having the client confront the actual feared object or situation
 - (b) instructing the client to picture each fearful image while maintaining a relaxed state
 - (c) constructing a hierarchy of feared images
 - (d) helping the client experience the desired state of relaxation through hypnosis
 - (e) instructing the client to express their feelings about each feared image
5. What factors account for individual differences in problem solving?

- (a) Age and gender
- (b) Birth order and marital status
- (c) Sleep patterns and dietary habits
- (d) Astrological sign and time of day
- (e) Social media usage and television watching habits

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

- 6. True or False: The likelihood of receiving help in an emergency increases as the number of bystanders rises.
- 7. True or False: The standard deviation of the sample measurements 1, 3, 7, 10, and 14 is 2.87.
- 8. True or False: The Stanford-Binet Intelligence Scales-5 is the most appropriate tool for evaluating nonverbal adolescents' cognitive abilities.
- 9. True or False: Individuals with moderate mental retardation often display advanced cognitive abilities despite their condition.
- 10. True or False: According to the Premack Principle, a behavior that occurs frequently can serve as an effective reinforcer for modifying another behavior.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

- 11. Discuss the nature of psychoactive drugs, analyzing their effects on consciousness, and categorize them based on their functions, providing clear definitions and examples for each type.
- 12. Discuss the relationship between aging and sexual functioning, particularly focusing on how aging affects physiological aspects such as vaginal lubrication.

End of Paper