

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Herberg's (1955) study of religion in America suggested that:
  - (a) ethnic minorities practised religion to achieve social acceptance in the culture
  - (b) mainstream faiths were becoming increasingly identified with national identity
  - (c) the moral teachings of the main religions were becoming relatively similar
  - (d) all of the above
2. Secularization involves the two related ideas of:
  - (a) disappointment and disproportion
  - (b) disbelief and disintegration
  - (c) disengagement and disenchantment
  - (d) distribution and distillation
3. The social construction of childhood can be traced back to:
  - (a) the introduction of compulsory education
  - (b) increasingly emotional ties between parents and children
  - (c) new consumer goods for children, such as clothes, toys and books
  - (d) all of the above
4. The tripartite system used the 11+ exam to select pupils for:
  - (a) popular schools that lay outside their catchment area
  - (b) private, public and comprehensive schools
  - (c) grammar, technical, and secondary modern schools
  - (d) polytechnics, colleges and universities
5. The effect of the Internet upon the public sphere has been to:
  - (a) repress it, by promoting only the interests of elite groups
  - (b) revive it, by reaffirming a commitment to freedom of speech
  - (c) reproduce it, by emphasizing face-to-face contact with peer groups
  - (d) replace it with a superior form of communication

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The global village is not considered a level of society, distinguishing it from the household and nation state.
7. True or False: Judith Butler (1999) argued that gender is performed through bodily gestures and styles, thereby creating the concept of 'sex'.
8. True or False: The social democratic model in Esping-Andersen's framework is characterized by universalistic benefits and public sector employment.
9. True or False: The 'post-industrial society' identified by Bell (1973) signifies a transition towards a service economy centered on knowledge and information.
10. True or False: Race is an objective classification system that categorizes individuals based solely on their biological differences.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss Warner's findings on the 'colour line' in Natchez, examining how the sharp division between black and white castes reflects broader beliefs about racial superiority in American society.
12. Discuss the concept of social stratification, analyzing its impact on individuals' movement within societal layers and its implications for social inequality.

End of Paper