

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. Parsons argued that the two main functions of the modern family were:
 - (a) secondary socialization and strict discipline
 - (b) emotional support and sexual gratification
 - (c) primary socialization and personality stabilization
 - (d) oppressing women and reproducing the labour force
2. In Patterson's study of Brixton, it was found that:
 - (a) black and white residents competed for economic resources
 - (b) African-Caribbean migrants were concentrated in the poorest and most expensive housing
 - (c) white working class communities resented the arrival of black families
 - (d) all of the above
3. The tripartite system used the 11+ exam to select pupils for:
 - (a) popular schools that lay outside their catchment area
 - (b) private, public and comprehensive schools
 - (c) grammar, technical, and secondary modern schools
 - (d) polytechnics, colleges and universities
4. What does Berger (1963) describe as a metaphor for social reality?
 - (a) a fairground ride
 - (b) a circus
 - (c) a puppet theatre
 - (d) a ballet
5. Social norms are:
 - (a) creative activities such as gardening, cookery and craftwork
 - (b) the symbolic representation of social groups in the mass media
 - (c) religious beliefs about how the world ought to be
 - (d) rules and expectations about interaction that regulate social life

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: The term 'culture industry' describes the emergence of subcultures and counter-cultures in response to mainstream culture.
7. True or False: Weber argued that the 'spirit of capitalism' originated from new religious movements that rejected traditional labor practices.
8. True or False: Judith Butler (1999) claimed that sexual characteristics are the biological determinants that define gender identity.
9. True or False: The 'crisis of the 1970 s' is characterized by declining profits and rising unemployment in many industrialized nations.
10. True or False: Giddens (1998) identified the democratization of the family as a key element of New Labour's 'third way'.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the definition of poverty as used by the United States government, focusing on its historical context, adjustments for inflation, and implications for social policy.
12. Discuss the findings of Sullivan's (2000) study regarding the dynamics of housework distribution among men, particularly focusing on the factors influencing their involvement when unemployed or in dual-income households.

End of Paper