

Multiple Choice (10 marks)

1. The terms 'crisis of the 1970 s' is used to refer to:
 - (a) declining profits and rising unemployment
 - (b) the eradication of the welfare state
 - (c) rising divorce rates and the decline of the traditional family
 - (d) an unfortunate twist in fashion sensibility
2. Sullivan's (2000) study suggested that the proportion of housework men did was greatest when:
 - (a) they had rediscovered themselves as 'new men'
 - (b) their wives were at home and nagged them all the time
 - (c) exciting gadgets like the hoover and electric iron were invented
 - (d) they were unemployed or both partners worked full time
3. One of the difficulties in 'operationalizing' concepts like social class is that:
 - (a) definitions and indicators can vary, making valid comparisons problematic
 - (b) there are no reliable indicators of such widely contested ideas
 - (c) it takes all the fun out of armchair theorising
 - (d) it has little use for applied, empirical research about the topic
4. In idealized views of science, the experimental method is said to involve:
 - (a) testing out new research methods to see which one works best
 - (b) isolating and measuring the effect of one variable upon another
 - (c) using personal beliefs and values to decide what to study
 - (d) interpreting data subjectively, drawing on theoretical paradigms
5. White-collar crime is low in visibility because:
 - (a) it involves only small amounts of money
 - (b) the proletariat can outsmart the bourgeoisie
 - (c) the police turn a blind eye to corporate crime
 - (d) it goes undetected in the context of everyday business transactions

True / False (10 marks)

Answer True or False

6. True or False: 'Eyeballing' refers to scanning a table to identify general patterns and significant figures in data.
7. True or False: Terrorism is characterized by its organized nature and often global scale, distinct from typical crimes described by the Chicago School.
8. True or False: The demographic transition involves a decline in birth rates, increased life expectancy, and an ageing population.
9. True or False: Extensive paperwork is considered a fundamental aspect of Weber's ideal type of bureaucracy.
10. True or False: Marx believed that religion would diminish following a socialist revolution that eliminated capitalist ideology.

Long Form Response (20 marks)

Answer each question with a clear and complete explanation.

11. Discuss the process of socialization and analyze its significance in shaping individual identity and facilitating membership in society.
12. Discuss the concept of vertical mobility in sociology, analyzing its implications on social structure and individual identity within various societal contexts.

End of Paper